

Traffic Light Bookmark

Materials:

- Black, Red, Yellow and Green Construction Paper
- Black Marker
- Safety Scissors

Instructions

1. First, go find a big Sprout to cut a rectangle out of the black construction paper so that it looks like a traffic light. Make sure it's small enough to fit into a book.
2. Then, ask your big Sprout to cut a circle out of each color of construction paper: red, yellow and green. Now, you have your lights.
3. Glue the circles onto your traffic light: red at the top, yellow in the center and green on the bottom. Does it look like the traffic lights you see on the road?
4. Have a grown-up help you write the words "Stop", "Slow Down," and "Go" on the appropriate colors, red, yellow, and green.
5. Ta-daaaa! You're all done.
